The Altoona Tribune.

McCRUM & DERN, [INDEPENDENT IN EVERYTHING.] EDITORS AND PROPRIETORS.

VOL. 9. ALTOONA, PA., WEDNESDAY, JULY 13, 1864. NO. 18.

SAVE THE PER CENTAGE

BY BUYING YOUR

CLOTHING FROM FIRST HANDS.

ETTINGER & TUCK, Manufacturers and Wholesale and Retail dealers in Ready-made Clothing, would respectfully invite the attention of the public to the following facts in reference to their stock.

1st. We manufacture our own goods. They are made up in our own Store, in Philadelphia, under our immediate supervision, and we know they are well made and can be warranted and superior to the largest quantity of Ready-made clothing in the market.

EQUAL TO THE BEST,

2nd. We buy our Cloths directly from the Importers and Manufacturers, consequently we save the per centage put on by middle men.

3rd. We sell our Clothing at a reasonable percentage over the cost of our Cloths, thereby saving the purchasers of Clothing the percentage which must be added by those who buy from second hands to sell again. We retail our Clothing at the same price which other merchants pay for theirs at wholesale, consequently those who buy from us get their goods at the same price which other Clothiers pay for theirs in the city, thereby saving said Clothiers' per centage.

We have branch Stores in

ALTOONA AND JOHNSTOWN,

where goods may be had at the same figures at which we sell them here in the city.

If any person has been told, or imagines, that Tuck's Store, in Altoona, is "played out," let such person drop into his establishment, on Main Street, and examine his goods and prices.

Wholesale House, No. 702 Market Street, Philadelphia. Dec. 2, 1863.—tf.

NEW GOODS.

THE undersigned would respectfully inform the citizens of Altoona and surrounding country, that he has just returned from the East, where he has been selecting his stock of which, for style, quality and price, cannot be surpassed in this neck of country. His stock is much larger than heretofore, and as it is quite an object, in these exciting war times, for every one to purchase where they can get

FALL AND WINTER GOODS,

The Best Goods and at the Lowest Prices,

he would say that he can and will sell as low, if not a little lower than any other house in this place. He wishes all to call and see his stock before purchasing elsewhere, as he feels confident he can offer inducements which will defy competition. His stock consists of

LADIES' DRESS GOODS of every description,
MEN AND BOYS' WINTER WEAR,
LADIES AND MISSES' DRESS SHOES,
MEN AND BOYS' BOOTS AND SHOES,
MEN'S HALF HOSE
WOMEN'S AND MISSES' WOOL HOSE,
HATS AND CAPS,
BLEACHED AND UNBLEACHED MUSLIN.
GINGHAMS AND HEAVY DRILLINGS.

He will sell Ladies Sewed, Heeled Bootees at $1.50@1.75
Kip Pegged ..... 1.37@1.50
Men's Boots, ..... 2.75@3.50
BALMORAL SKIRTS, very low.

SOMEBODY'S DARLING.

Into a ward of the whitewashed halls,
Where the dead and dying lay,
Wounded by bayonets, shells, and balls,
Somebody's Darling was borne one day—
Somebody's Darling, so young and so brave.
Wearing yet on his pale, sweet face,
Soon to be hid by the dust of the grave,
The lingering light of his boyhood's grace.

Matted are the curls of gold,
Kissing the snow of that fair young brow,
Pale are the lips of delicate mould—
Somebody's Darling is dying now.
Back from his beautiful blue-veined brow
Brush all the wandering waves of gold,
Cross his hands on his bosom now,
Somebody's Darling is still and cold.

Kiss him once for somebody's sake,
Murmur a prayer soft and low;
One bright curl from its fair mates take,
They were somebody's pride, you know;
Somebody's hand had rested there,
Was it a mother's soft and white?
And have the lips of a sister fair
Been baptized in the waves of light?

God knows best! he was somebody's love;
Somebody's heart enshrined him there;
Somebody watted his name above
Night and morn on the wings of prayer.
Somebody wept when he marched away,
Looking so handsome, brave and grand;
Somebody's kiss on his forehead lay,
Somebody clung to his parting hand.

Somebody's waiting and watching for him—
Yearning to hold him again to their heart;
And there he lies with his blue eyes dim,
And the smiling, childlike lips apart.
Tenderly bury the fair young dead,
Pausing to drop on his grave a tear,
Carve on the wooden slab at his head,
"Somebody's Darling slumbers here."

THE ROSE BUSH.

A child sleeps under a rose bush fair,
The buds swell out in the soft May air;
Sweetest rests, and on dream wings flies,
To play with the angels in Paradise—
And the years glide by.

A maiden stands by the rose-bush fair,
The dewy blossoms perfume the air;
She presses her hand to her throbbing breast,
With love's first wonderful rapture blest—
And the years glide by.

A mother kneels by the rose-bush fair,
Soft sigh the leaves in the evening air;
Sorrowing thoughts of the past arise,
And tears of anguish bedim her eyes—
And the years glide by.

Naked and lone stands the rose-bush fair,
Whirled are the leaves in the autumn air.
Withered and dead they fall to the ground,
And silently cover a new made mound—
And the years glide by.

Select Miscellany.

MY REVENGE.

We met in the beginning of the action, I and my enemy, Richard Withers—he on foot, I mounted. It matters not why I hated him with the fiercest wrath of my nature. 'The heart knoweth its own bitterness;' and the details, while most painful to me, would be of trifling interest to you. Suffice it that our feud was not a political one. For ten years we were the closest intimates the same studies, the same tastes, and the same terms could make us. I was the elder of the two, and stronger physically; comparatively friendless as the world takes it, and had no near relatives. Young, solitary and visionary as we were, it is hard to make you understand what we were to each other. Up to this period of our estrangement, working together, eating together, sleeping together, I can safely say that we had not a grief, not a pleasure or a vacation that we did not share with almost boyish single heartedness. But one single day changed all. We rose in the morning dear friends and lay down that night bitter foes.—I was a man of extremes; I either loved or hated with the strength of my heart. The past was forgotten in the present. The ten years of kindness, of congeniality, of almost womanly kindness, were erased as with a sponge.—

We looked each other in the face with angry scorching eyes—said but few words (our rage was too deep to be demonstrative) and parted. Then in my solitude I dashed my clenched hand upon the Bible and vowed passionately: I may wait ten years, Richard Withers! I may wait twenty, thirty, if you will, but sooner or later I swear I shall have my revenge!

And this was the way we met.

I wonder if he thought of that day when he laid his hand upon my bridle rein and looked up at me with his treacherous blue eyes. I scarcely think he did, or he could not have given me that look. He was beautiful as a girl: indeed, the contrast of his fair, aristocratic face with the regular outline and red curving lips, to my own rough dark exterior, might have been partly the secret of my former attraction to him. But the loveliness of an angel if it had been his would not have saved him from me then. There was a pistol in his hand, but before he had time to discharge it, I cut at him with my sword, and as the life swept on like a gathering wave, I saw him stagger under the blow, throw up his arms and go down with the press. Bitterly as I hated him, the ghastly face haunted me the long day through.

You all remember how it was at Fredericksburg. How we crossed the river at the wrong point, and under the raking fire of the enemy, were so disastrously repulsed.

It was a sad mistake, and fatal to many a brave heart. When night fell, I lay upon the field among dead and wounded. I was comparatively helpless. A ball had shivered the cap of my right knee, and my shoulder was laid open with a saber cut. The latter bled profusely, but by dint of knotting my handkerchief tightly around it, I managed to staunch it in a measure For my knee I could do nothing, Consciousness did not forsake me, and the pain was intense; but from the moans and wails of men about me I judged that others had fared worse than I. Poor fellows! there was many a mother's darling suffering there. Many of my comrades, lads of eighteen or twenty, who had never seen a night from home until they joined the army, spoiled pets of fortune, manly enough at heart, but children in years and constitution, who had been used to have every little ache and scratch compassioned with an almost extravagant sympathy - there crushed and dying, huddled together—some where they had weakly crawled upon their hands and knees—and never a woman's voice to whisper gentle consolation. It was pitchy dark, and a cold miserable rain was falling upon us, the very heavens weeping over our miseries. Then through the darkness and drizzling rain, through the groans and prayers of the fallen men about me, I heard a familiar voice close to my side:

'Water! water! water! I am dying with thirst—if it be but a swallow—water? For God's sake give me some water!"

I recoiled with dismay. It was the voice of my enemy: the voice of Richard Withers.—They were once very dear to me, those mellow tones; once the pleasantest music I cared to hear. Do you think they so softened me now? You are mistaken; I am candid about it.—My blood boiled in my veins when powerless to withdraw from his detested neighborhood. There was water in my canteen. I had filled it before the last ball came. By stretching my hand I could give him a drink, but I did not raise a finger. Vengeance is sweet I smiled grimly to myself, and said down in my secret heart:

'Not a drop shall cross his lips though he perish. I shall have my revenge.'

Do you recoil with horror? Listen how merciful God was to me.

There was a poor little drummer boy on the other side, a merry, manly boy of twelve or thirteen, the pet and plaything of the regiment. There was something of the German in him; he had been with us from the first, and was reckoned one of the best drummers in the army. But we will never march to the tap of Charley's drum again. He had got a ball in his lungs, and the exposure and fatigue, together with the wound had made him lightheaded. Poor little child! he crept close to me in the darkness and laid his cheek upon my breast. May be he thought it was his own pillow at home; may be he thought it, poor darling, his mother's bosom. God only knows what he thought, but with his hot arm about my neck, and his curly head pressed close to my wicked heart, even then swelling with bitter hatred of my enemy, he began to murmur in his delerium, 'Our father who art in Heaven.'

I was a rough bearded man, I had been an orphan for many a long year; but not too many or too long to forget the simple hearted prayer of my childhood—the dim vision of that mother's face over which the grass had grown for twenty changing summers. Something tender stirred within my hardened heart. It was too dark to see the little face, but the young lips went on brokenly:

'And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.'

It went through me like a knife—sharper than the saber cut, keener than the ball, God was merciful to me and this young child was the channel of his mercy.

Forgive our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.

I had never understood the words before. If an angel had spoken it could scarcely have been more of a revelation. For the first time the thought that I might be mortally wounded, that death might be nearer than I dreamed of, struck me with awe and horror. The text of a long forgotten sermon was in my ears; it is appointed for all men to die and after death the judgement.

Worse and worse. What measure of mercy could I expect, if the same was meted out that I had meted unto my enemy.—The tears swelled into my eyes, and tickled down my cheeks; the first I had shed since my boyhood. I felt subdued and strangely moved.

The rain was falling still, but the little head upon my breast was gone. He crept away silently in the darkness. His unconscious mission was fulfilled, he would not return at my call.

Then I lifted myself with great effort.—The old bitterness was crushed, but not altogether dead.

'Water—water!' moaned Richard Withers, in his agony.

I dragged myself closer to him.

'God be praised! I said with a solumn heart. 'Dick, old boy, enemy no longer. God be praised! I am willing and able to to help you. Drink and be friends.'

It had been growing lighter and lighter in the east and now it was day. Day within and without. In the first gray glimmer of dawn we looked into each other's ghastly faces for a moment, and then the canteen was at Richard's mouth and he drank as only the fevered can drink. I watched him with moist eyes, leaning upon my elbow and forgetting the bandaged shoulder he grasped me with both hands.

Blood stained and palled as it was, his face was ingenous and beautiful as a child's.

'Now let me speak,' he said panting.—'You have misjudged me, Rufus. It was all a mistake: I found it out after we parted. I meant to have spoken this morning when I grasped your rein, but—but—'

His generosity spared me the rest.

The wound my hand had inflicted was yet bleeding in his head; but for the blind passion of the blow it must have been mortal. Was vengeance so sweet after all? I felt something warm trickling from my shoulder. The daylight had gone again—how dark it was!

'Forgive me, Dick,' I murmured, groping about for him with my hands. Then I was blind—then I was cold as ice—then I tumbled down an abyss, and everything was blank.

'The crisis is past—he will recover,' said a strange voice.

'Thank God! thank God!' cried a familiar one.

I opened my eyes. Where am I? How odd everything was Rows of beds stretching down a long narrow hall, bright with sunshine, and women wearing white caps and peculiar dresses flitting to and fro with noiseless activity, which in my fearful weakness it tired me to watch. My hand lay outside the covers; it was as shadowy as a skeleton's What had become of my flesh? Was I a man or a child? A body or a spirit? I was done with material things altogether and had been subjected to some refining process and but now awaked to a new existence But did they have beds in the other world? I was looking lazily at the opposite one, when some one took my hand. A face was bending over. I looked up with a beating heart. The golden sunshine was on it—on the fair, regular features, and the lips and kindly blue eyes.

'Dick!' I gasped, 'where have you been all these years?"

'Weeks, you mean,' said Richard, with the old smile. 'But never mind now. You are better dear Rufus—you will live—we shall be happy together again.'

It was more a woman's voice than a man's, but Dick had a tender heart.

'Where am I? what's the matter with me!' I asked.

'Hospital, in the first place, typhus in the second. You were taken after that night at Fredericksburg.'

It broke upon me at once. I remembered that awful night—I could never, never forget it again. Weak as a child, I covered my face and burst into tears. Richard was on his knees by my side at once,

'I was a brute to recall it,' he whispered remorsefully; 'do not think of it, old boy—you must not excite yourself. It is all forgotten and forgiven.'

'Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us?' I prayed from my inmost heart.

'Those words have been in your mouth day and night, ever since you were taken,' said my friend.

I lay silent, cogitating.

'Tell me one thing,' I asked, are we in the North or South?'

'North—in Philadelphia.'

'Then you are a prisoner,' I said, mournfully, recalling his principles.

'Not a bit of it.'

'What do you mean?'

Richard laughed.

'I have seen the errors of my ways. I have taken the oath of allegiance. When you are strong enough again we shall fight side by side.'

'And the wound in your head?' I asked, with emotion, looking up at his bright, handsome face.

'Don't mention it; it healed long ago.'

'And the little drummer?'

Richard bowed his head upon my hand.

'He was found dead upon the field. Heaven bless him! They said he died praying with his mother's name upon his lips.'

'Revere him as an angel!' I whispered, grasping him by the hand. 'But for his dying prayer we had yet been enemies!'

PURITY OF CHARACTER.

Over the beauty of the plum and the apricot there grows a bloom and beauty more exquisite than the fruit itself—a soft, delicate flush overspreads its blushing cheek. Now, if you strike your hand over it, it is gone. The flower that hangs in the morning, impearled with dew, arrayed as no queenly woman ever was arrayed with jewels, once shake it so that the beads roll off, and you may sprinkle water over it as you please, yet it can never be again what it was when the dew fell silently on it from Heaven. On a frosty morning you may see the panes of glass covered with landscapes, mountains, lakes and trees, blended in a beautiful fantastic picture. Now lay your hand upon the glass, and by a scratch of your finger, or by the warmth of your palm, all the delicate tracery will be obliterated. So there is in youth a beauty and purity of character, which, when once touched and defiled, can never be restored; a fringe more delicate than frostwork, and which when torn and broken, will never be re-embroidered. He who has spotted and spoiled his garments in youth, though he may seek to make them white again, can never wholly do it, never were he to wash them with his tears.

When a young man leaves his father's house with the blessing of a mother's tears still wet upon his brow, if he once lose the early purity of character, it is a loss that he can never make whole again.

Such is the consequence of crime. Its effects cannot be eradicated; it can only be forgiven.

FACTS ABOUT THE SUN.—It has been estimated that the heat emitted from every square foot of the sun's surface in an hour is equivalent to that produced by the combustion of 1,500 lbs. of coal, and the mechanical work which that quantity of coal is able to produce is equal to that of 7,000 horses. The light and heat of the sunn are far greater than any that can be produced artificially—nevertheless, such a rapid loss of heat as that constantly given out would, in a long course of years, occasion a sensible effect, if there were no means of restoring the lost power. Some suppose that the fall of meteorites into the sun keeps up its heat. Others that the contraction of the sun at 10,000th part of its diameter would generate sufficient heat to maintain its present heating force for nearly 8,000 years. Assuming the density of the sun to be equal to that of the earth, a similar amount of contraction would suffice for ten millions of years.

THE PATH OF LIFE.

Looking awhile since, at a collection of German lithographs, I was struck with one that was simple in conception, and yet of great power and beauty.

It was a picture of a little child in the dress of a pilgrim, walking slowly along a narrow path, which was bounded on either side by a terrific precipice, the hedges of which was hidden form his view by a luxuriant thicket of fruits and flowers. Behind the child is an angel, with a countenance of mixed tenderness and anxiety, his hands placed lightly on the shoulders of the little pilgrim, as if to keep him in the centre of the path; while the child having closed his eyes, that he may not percieve the tempting snares on either side, is walking clamly forward, content not to see where he plants his footsteps, as long as he feels each gentle and guiding touch of the angel upon him. His whole aspect is that of peace, confidence and conscious safety, so long as he follows the guidance of his heavenly monitor, and presses onward in his way.

As I gazed upon it, several thoughts arose up vividly to my mind; and as the description is itself a picture, others, in view of it may ponder the lesson it suggests, and as they ponder be profited.

A GOOD JOKE.—A loafer, while stopping at a tavern up country, used to lounge about the bar and drink other people's liquor. Not a glass could be left alone for a moment, but he would slip up and drink its entire contents. One day a stage-driver came in, and called for a stiff horn of brandy toddy. Jehu immidiately played possum by leaving his brandy while he stepped to the door. The bait took. On returning he saw his glass empty, and exclaimed with all the diabolical horror he could affect:

"Brandy and opium enough to kill forty men!—Who drank that pison?"

"I!" stammered the loafer, ready to give up the ghost with affright.

"You are a dead man!" said the driver.

"What shall I do?" beseeched the other, who thought himself a gone sucker.

"Down with a pint of lamp oil, or you are a dead man in three minutes!" answered the wicked driver. And down went the lamp oil, and up came the brandy and opium, together with his breakfast. The joke was told and he has never drank other people's liquor since.

LOOK UP.—It is what we rejoice to see men, women, and children, the rich and the poor, the old and the young, always looking up. It shows the purity of your intentions and the determination of your hearts. We never despair of a man however poor and degraded he may be, who looks up, springs up. We see in him the elements of a true man No matter, if the seas have swallowed your property, or the fires have consumed your dwellings, look up, and take fresh courage. Is your name a byword or a re proach? Look up to the purity of the sky, and to its image be reflected in your heart. Detraction then will rebound from your bosom. Are you trod upon by the strong?—Look up, push up, and you will stand as strong as he. Are you crowded out of the society of the rich? Look up and soon your company will be coveted. Whatever may be our circumstances or condition in life, always make it a point to look up, to rise higher, and you will attain your fondest expectations.—Success may be slow but sure it will come Heaven is on the side of those who look up.

☞ A scrub-headed boy having been brought up before the court as a witness, the following colloquy ensued:

"Where do you live?" asked the Judge.

"Live with mother."

"Where does your mother live?"

"She lives with father?"

"Where does he live?"

"He lives with the old folks."

"Where do they live?" says the Judge getting very red, as an audible snicker goes around the room.

"They live't home."

"Where in the thunder's their home?" roars the Judge."

"That's where I'm from," says the boy, sticking his tongue in a corner of his cheek and slowly closing one eye on the Judge.

"Here, Mr. Constable," says the Court, "take the witness out and tell him to travel, he evidently does not understand the nature of an oath."

"You'd think different" says the boy going toward the doorway, "if I was to once give you a cussin!"

WESTERN CROP PROSPECTS.—A gentleman writing to the Chicago Journal from Fulton, Ill., says: "I have traveled over the most of Illinois and through Central and Eastern Iowa, during the past three weeks, and think there will be full crops of wheat and corn in these States this year. The prospects are first rate, but apprehensions exist that the farmers will be very short of help when harvest time comes. I have also been in some parts of Wisconsin. The prospects are not so good there for full crops. They need relief.

Extremes.

Notwithstanding John Bull's letter writers and travellers may write us "a nation of bores," we are nevertheless inclined to believe that the Anglo-American race, of the present day, will compare very favorably with the Anglo Saxon of any age. Indeed, with native vanity, we have been led to think that we far surpass them in many things that go to make up gentility and general intelligence. Yet we have one fault as a people which cannot but be seen by the intelligent European as well as the close observer at home. That fault is found in our extremes. We either laud men too highly or condemn them too severely. We rest either in too sanguine a security or are entirely carried away by excitement upon the approach of danger.

To establish the truth of these assertions it only seems necessary for us to point to the many evidences that have been presented during our present war.

Some military chieftain, perhaps before unknown to the world, has performed a daring feat, and gained a splendid victory. For the time being, his name has been on every lip, our newspapers have been filled with laudations, until one might almost have imagined that of all the stars that have arisen this one outshone them all. Demands have immediately been made, through public journals and private sources, for a transfer of this new giant to some more important and responsible position. The transfer is made, a new campaign is opened, and our hero, elated with the flattery that we have willingly bestowed upon him, presses forward to defeat. His assault is unsuccessful, he is ingloriously driven back, and immediately falls fifty or one hundred per cent. in the opinion of his late admirers. Those who yesterday lauded him to the skies to-day denounce him as unfit to lead even a regiment into action. This is the record of not only a solitary case. Scores have had their history written in these few words. Many have been written heroes in this present war, and are now either disgraced or almost forgotten, their first glory clouded o'er by some after misfortune.

Now this should not have been so. It is a fact that too many have not deserved one-half the praise they have received, but it is equally true that many have not deserved one-half the censure that has been heaped upon them. There are cases in which incompetent leaders have been enabled to do much, and there are other cases in which the genius of a Napoleon might have failed. In the first place, then, we ought not to elevate men so rapidly, until they have proven themselves worthy on many well fought fields, and then we should not hastily condemn because of misfortunes, unless a man proves himself totally unworthy of our confidence.

But, as we have before inferred, this is not the only case in which we are carried to extremes. A few days ago many of our citizens confidently predicted the downfall of the rebellion within thirty days, all sanguine of success, they seemed to suppose there was but little to do except to march directly into Richmond; but now that a body of rebel raiders has cut our communications with Washington, the greatest excitement prevails, and some are crying "all is lost." Richmond cannot be taken in a day, our armies will have fearful work to do before the rebel leaders will give up that stronghold. We have an abiding faith in the prowess of our armies, and the military capacity of their commanders, but we cannot expect them to accomplish impossibilities. No workman erects a building until he has made the necessary preparation. So General Grant cannot take Richmond until he has prepared the way. This may take more work than the final blow, but, however it may be, it must be done first. But at the same time, though things do look dark, we do think the rebel army can march the streets of Washington, only as prisoners of war. They have hazarded much in this attempt, and we believe will learn by it, their own folly. We are too easily elated with good news from some army correspondent, who, perhaps, has never been within ten miles of the front, and too easily depressed by exagerated accounts of stupendous raids, the magnitude of which has only a place in the excited imagination of the same ignoble writer.

This same habit of flying to extremes, is also the great exciting cause to party strife. Men honestly take slightly different views of the same subject, and then, led by this mad passion for extremes, each party imagines himself as far from his adversary as it is possible for him to be, while in fact, neither can tell, oftimes, what it is that separates them. In four cases out of every five, men take the opposite extremes just because they cling to the name of Democrat or Republican, or because their party leaders do so, while it is to the interest of those leaders to make the breach as wide as possible. For this purpose politicians very often make great ado in their political harangues about the inconsistency of their opponents, and in the madness of their extreme declamations lead men to quarrel, not about real issues but imaginary ones. It is high time that our citizens, everywhere, should begin to think for themselves, act for themselves, and avoid those foolish extremes that make us appear ridiculous in the eyes of the world.

SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY.—Secretary Chase has resigned, and Senator Fessenden, of Maine, has been appointed his successor and already entered upon the duties of his office. The change, though unexpected, caused less excitement than might have been supposed.

War News.

Our people have almost ceased to inquire about the news from Grant's and Sherman's armies, being more particularly interested for the present in the Rebel movement on Baltimore and Washington. The affair is undoubtedly of greater magnitude than had been supposed. Gen. Wallace, with 10,000 men, engaged them at Monocacy, but was forced to fall back toward Baltimore. He reports the Rebels 20,000 strong. The Northern Central R. R. has been cut in the vicinity of Cockeysville. A body of Rebel cavalry have, also, cut the Philadelphia, Wilmington & Baltimore R. R., capturing at least one, and some accounts say three passenger trains. On the train that was certainly captured, Major General Franklin was a passenger. All officers and soldiers on board were taken prisoners, the rest of the passengers robbed, and the train burned. By this bold stroke the Rebs have entirely severed the direct communication of New York and Philadelphia with Washington and Baltimore. They have also destroyed the telegraphic communication between those places, leaving us without news from Washington.

The latest account—this, Tuesday, afternoon—says: The Rebels are within six miles of Washington city, numbering according to various estimates, from 15,000 to 40,000.

This looks quite gloomy. We have, however, some assurances on the other hand, which lead us to hope this army of traitors have done about all they are able to accomplish. Some troops from New Orleans have been landed at Baltimore—These, with others there and some since sent forward, we trust will hurl back the invaders and teach them how presumptuous it is to make such attempts.

From Grant and Sherman we have nothing new, only that both seem to be making sure work though it be slow.

The Circus and Menagerie.

The citizens of this place and vicinity will have an opportunity of visiting an exhibition of rare attractive powers, formed by the combination of Thayer & Noyes' Circus and Van Amburgh & Co.'s Menagerie, both of which companies are to exhibit under one pavilion for a single price of admission. The expenses attendant upon such an enterprise must be enormous, especially in these times of prevailing high prices, but the immense throngs, which such an unusual combination cannot fail of attracting, will doubtless render the enterprise remunerative to its projectors. The collection of living beasts and birds, as will be seen by the advertisement, comprises a great variety of rare and interesting specimens from the most remote parts of the globe, among which will be found some that are very seldom seen in similar collections, and includes the monster elephant "Hanibal," who is a show of himself. Mr. Davis, who performs in the den of lions and tigers, is the favorite pupil of Van Amburgh and who has been brought up among beasts of prey. When only five years of age he was taken into a den of wild beasts, together with a lamb, by Mr. Van Amburgh in New York, thus verifying the prediction that "the lion and the lamb shall lie down together and a little child shall lead them." He is said to have a wonderful control over the fiercest of the brute creation. The circus troupe is composed of some of the most celebrated riders, vaulters, acrobats, equilibrists, clowns and voltigeurs in the country, while the stud of performing horses, ponies and mules it is said, cannot be equaled on this side of the Atlantic. Dr. Thayer, the famous humorist will doctor the audience with powerful doses of fun, and taken altogether, the exhibition promises to afford unlimited gratification to all who may attend, on July 13.

THE PIRATE ALABAMA SUNK.—On the 19th ult., the Rebel Pirate Alabama left the harbor of Cherbourg, France, for the purpose of engaging the U. S. Gunboat Kearsage, commanded by Capt. Winslow, which was lying off watching for the pirate.

The contest lasted about one hour and ten minutes, in which each vessel made seven circles in their manouvering. The contest ended by the Alabama being disabled and sunk by the guns of the Kearsage. Nine of the Alabania's crew were killed and twenty wounded. About 30 were picked up by the English Yacht, Deerhound, which lay off watching the fight. Among those taken up by this vessel was Capt. Semmes, commander of the Alabama. The rest of the rebel crew were taken by the Kearsage, as prisoners of war. The Kearsage had 3 men wounded, none killed. The action occurred about 10 or 12 miles from land.—The conduct of the commander of the British Yacht, in rescuing Capt. Semmes and some of his men thus enabling them to escape from being taken prisoners of war, is but another evidence of the falsity of English neutrality. The case may yet cause a serious difficulty between our government, and that of Queen Victoria.

17TH CONGRESSIONAL CONFERENCE.—The Conferees of the Republican party met at the Ward House, Tyrone, on the 23d ult., and after organizing proceeded to ballot for nomination. The names before the Convention were A. A. Barker, Editor of the Alleghenian, at Ebensburg, Cambria Co., L. W. Hall, of Altoona, and Wm. Dorris, Jr., of Huntingdon.

On the first ballot Barker had 6, Dorris 3, and Hall 3 votes. Barker getting the delegation from Cambria and Mifflin, Dorris that from Huntingdon, and Hall the delegation from Blair. 375 ballots were had, the majority of which were the same as the first. The last, however, stood Dorris 5, Hall 1, Barker 6 The Conference then adjourned to meet at the same place on Wednesday, the 31 of August, at 10 o'clock A. M.

AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION.—Do not forget that on Tuesday, the 2d day of August, an election will be held to decide as to whether our State Constitution shall be so amended as to permit the soldiers to vote. Then, when the day arrives, go to the polls, and give a unanimous vote for this amendment, thus testifying to the soldiers that you appreciate their services.

THE CONDITION OF THE SOUTH.—A soldier in Crooks' command of Gen. Hunter's army, writing from Charleston, West Va., since the return of the army to that point, says:

The impression on my mind about the rebellion is that the rebels are now using their last man, last dollar and last loaf of bread. There is absolutely nothing in reserve. If beaten now they go up suddenly and surely. We could see this everywhere. The last card is now being played, and if lost, all is lost for them. I do hope our people will hold out, no matter what happens to Grant or any body else. A little perseverance is bound to win the day. All rebels want to end the war now. They perfer subjugation to another year of war.

Letters from the Army.

FROM COMPANY F, 2d RESERVES.

ENTRENCHMENTS, NEAR PETERSBURG, VA.,
June 30th, 1864.

MESSRS. MCCRUM & DERR:—It has been some time since I have written to you, but we have been kept so busy since crossing the Rapidan, that we have had time for little else than actual and hard service. Accompanying this I send a list of casualities. In one of the late issues of the Tribune, in noticing the death, from wounds, of Lieut. Robert J. Clark, there are some remarks made which Capt. John M. Clark wishes to have corrected, as they would convey to the mind of the reader the idea that the Captain was not on the field in command of his Company when Lieut. Clark was wounded The statement of his being exhausted and not in the engagement is incorrect. He was with us in the charge when his brother was wounded and carried off the field. He remained with us through the contest and marched with us to our new position. Lieut. Clark was wounded by his side.

Our pickets have made an arrangement with the pickets of the Rebs, not to fire on the picket lines. We are in front of Wilcox's Division of Ewell's Corps. Before this arrangement was made it was extremely dangerous to be found in the rear of our rifle pits, or to raise a head above the entrenchments, but now we have no fears.

The distance between the two skirmish lines is 200 yards, but one would not think it over fifty when firing is going on. We are 3 miles to the left of Petersburg. On our right canonading is going on at all hours of the day and night. Our rations are large, indeed more than we can carry well. We get pickled cabbage, sour krout, onions, dried apples and beans. We get our water mostly from the swamps, but sometimes get some from wells, which is much cooler than the other. I saw some of the members of Co. M, 62d Reg't, a few days ago, and they seem very sanguine that they will go home in a few days. Some of the boys saw Capt. Findley and Lieut. McGlathery and others of the 76th Regiment yesterday, and report that they are well, and pleased to be under Gen. Grant.

The following are our casualities since May 4th to the present time:

1st Lieut. Robert J. Clark, wounded May 12th in the wilderness, died June 4th.
Private Alfred Cherry, killed May 12th.
" Abraham L. Smith, killed May 10th.
" A. Gehrett, wounded May 10, died 16th.
" Thos R. Sherman, wounded May 12th, died June 3d.
Private E. J. Moore, killed in skirmish line June 19th.
Sergt. W. Ambrose, wounded in face June 17.
" James B. Reid, wounded May 5.
Corp. John Smith, wounded in side May 12th.
" W. B. Snyder, thigh broken June 24th.
" David Cassiday, shoulder, May 12th.
Private George J. Helsel, captured by enemy, May 5th.
Private Wm. S. Hall, wounded in thigh slightly, May 10th.
Private A. Thompson, wounded in face, May 10.
" Jos. C. Pheasant, " foot, "
" Isaac Cornelius, wounded in breast seriously, June 19th.
Private William Snyder, in head seriously, June 23.
Private J. Rutherford, arm and side, June 25.
" M Hauck, arm, amputated May 10.
Bugler Geo. W. Leet, arm, June 19.

With this list I will close, only adding that to-day we muster for two month's pay, and that our time will expire in a month or six weeks.

FROM COMPANY K, 84th P. V

NEAR PETERSBURG, VA.,
June 27th, 1864.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—I wish to inform our friends in Altoona and vicinity, that some of us are yet alive and in good health.

Our line of battle is between two railroads—the Petersburg and Norfolk on our right, and the Petersburg on our left. We have been here longer than at any place yet since this campaign. It is very warm down here in Dixie—a little warmer than we want it—but we will do the best we can till the weather gets cooler again. We would like very much to see some rain, for it is very dry and dusty here now, and water is getting very scarce. When we first came here, we carried our water a mile, but now we have a well about four feet deep, which supplies us. This well is in our breastworks, and the water is much better than what we formerly had. Our Company has 38 men fit for duty, all of whom are in good health and ready for action whenever called upon.

I will now give a list of the killed and wounded in our Company since we crossed the Rapidan.

May 5th—John R. Shankel, slight wound in head; returned to duty. Robert Dane, right hand. James Hapburn, right hand. Samuel Snoxy, left hand.

May 6th—Allan Mabie, killed. Henry Lubold, left shoulder; returned to duty. Alfred Everhart, face.

May 12th—Corp'l Philip McCracken, right hand; returned to duty. Michael Keep, right lung, died June 8th. Alexander Read, right leg, amputated, died May 19th.

May 24th—Henry C. Bowers, right shoulder, returned to duty.

June 1st—Jacob Gillnett, killed. Capt. Alban H. Nixon, left hand and left shoulder. Levi Derrick, left hand. Joseph Barker, slight wound in forehead. N. B. Trude, thigh and left hand.

June 19th—Jos. Larn, killed. Peter S. Hart, wounded in right shoulder.

J. A. Shankel, died June 3d of Typhoid fever.

I believe this is a complete list, during this campaign, up to the present time.

JOS F STOUFFER,
Co. K, 84th Pa. Vols.

FAST DAY.—The President, in accordance with the joint resolution of Congress, has issued his proclamation, appointing the first Thursday of August next as a day of humiliation and prayer for the people of the United States, and commending them to confess and repent of their manifold sins; to implore forbearance and forgiveness of the Almighty, and to pray that, if consistent with His will, the existing rebellion may be speedily suppressed, and the supremacy of the Constitution and laws of the United States be established throughout the States; that the rebels may lay down their arms and speedily return to their allegiance, that they may not be utterly destroyed; that the effusion of blood may be stayed, and that unity and fraternity may be preserved, and peace established throughout our borders.

REMARKABLE COINCIDENCES.—At Spotsylvania Court house, Brigadier General Henry A. Walker, of A. P. Hill's Corps, lost his foot. In D. H. Hill's attack upon the intrenched camp at Bermuda Hundred, Brigadier General Wm. S. Walker was severely wounded in the foot and taken prisoner. Major General H. T. Walker was shot through the foot in the recent engagement near Dallas, Georgia, between Johnston and Sherman. The commander of the Stonewall brigade, General James L. Walker, was badly wounded in the great battle of May 12th, when Ed. Johnston's division sufferd great loss. General Marmaduke killed in a duel General March Walker, of Arkansas.

S. C NORTHROP, Agent.

WHAT EVERYBODY KNOWS, viz.—

That Iron well galvanized will not rust;
That a simple machine is better than a complicated one;
That a Wringer should be self-adjusting, durable, and efficient;
That Thumb-Screws and Fastenings cause delay and trouble to regulate and keep in order;
That wood soaked in hot water will swell, shrink and split;
That wood bearings for the shaft to run in will wear out;
That the Putnam Wringer, with or without cog wheels will not tear the clothes;
That cog-wheel regulators are not essential;
That the Putnam Wringer has all the advantages, and not one of the disadvantages above named;
That all who have tested it, pronounce it the best Wringer ever made;
That it will wring a Thread or a Bed-Quilt WITHOUT ALTERATION.

We might fill the paper with testimonials, but insert only a few to convince the skeptical, if such there be; and we say to all, test Putnam's Wringer. Test it THOROUGHLY with ANY and ALL others, and if not entirely satisfactory, return it.

Putnam Manufacturing CO:

GENTLEMEN; I know from practical experience that iron well galvanized with zinc will not oxidize or rust one particle. The Putnam Wringer is as near perfect as possible, and I can cheerfully recommend it to be the best in use.

Respectfully yours,
JNO. W. WHEELER, Cleveland, Ohio.

Many year's experience in the galvanizing business, enables me to indorse the above statement in all particulars.
JNO. C. LEFFERTS, No. 100 Beekman Street.
New York, January, 1864.

We have tested Putnam's Clothes Wringer by practical working, and know that it will do. It is cheap; it is simple; it requires no room, whether at work or at rest; a child can operate it; it does its duty thoroughly; it saves time and it saves wear and tear. We earnestly advise all who have much washing to do, with all intelligent persons who have any, to buy this Wringer. It will pay for itself in a year at most.

HON. HORACE GREELEY.

UNITED STATES TAXES.

Important to the Tax Payers of Blair County.

HAVING concluded to dispense with the services of a Deputy Collector in Blair county the tax payers are hereby notified that all taxes assessed up to and including the 1st of April will be paid to Mr. Bell as heretofore.

The annual list for 1864, the May list, and all subsequent lists will be collected by James Clark, esq., in the townships of Sny'd, Antes, Tyrone, and Tyrone city, and by myself in the remainder of the county.

In collecting the annual list, assessments will be fixed at convenient places, of which public notice will be given.

For the convenience of manufacturers and others who have monthly taxes to pay, I will spend the third Tuesday of every month in Hollidaysburg and the following day in Altoona, at which time and places they can call and pay their taxes. If not then paid, the money, or check for the same, can be forwarded by mail to me at Johnstown.

The law imperatively demands that the tax must be paid before the close of the month, and it is my duty to enforce the law without respect to persons. Delinquents will find ten per cent. added to the amount and a warrant in the hands of a special deputy for the collection of all tax's not paid as above stated.

Mr. Clark will be at Tyrone on the third Friday in each month. Remittances can be made to him at Birmingham, Huntingdon county.

SAMUEL J. ROYER,
Je9-2w. Collector.

The Fourth.

This ever glorious day came with a bright, cloudless sky and many happy faces, for, although there were no arrangements for a general celebration, each citizen of our mountain town seemed intent on doing their best to make it a gala day. In accordance with a time honored custom a large amount of gunpowder was exploded at an early hour, which, if it had no other good effect, brought us out into the pure morning air in time to see the rising sun and, to either see or participate in all that might follow.

THE FANTASTICS.—Some fifty young men had arranged for a fantastic parade, and at six o'clock made their appearance from the Hollidaysburg plank road. They were mostly made to represent that, not rare, species of humanity now familiarly known as contrabands. Some of them presented quite a striking appearance, especially the one who hammered the barrel, (alias bass drum.) The affair, for its kind, was good, but we protest against burlesquing a day so dear to American hearts.

ENGLISH CATHOLIC PIC NIC.—The English Catholic pic-nic was held in Miller's Grove, west of town. This was, perhaps, the largest gathering of the many that surrounded our mountain town during the day. Dancing and amusements of various kinds filled up the day, until the evening time invited the "gay and happy" home.

THE GERMAN CATHOLICS and GERMAN LUTHERANS occupied different parts of Beale's woods south of town. Their amusements and manner of enjoyment were much the same as at the English Catholic, with the addition, perhaps, that our German friends enter into all such things with their might, consequently manifesting more zeal than their English neighbors.

THE METHODIST S. SCHOOL.—Loudon's woods, also south of town, was made vocal with the songs of these merry children. Here a rich repast was spread for the "dear little ones," and innocent amusements filled up the pleasures of the day, and they returned home, as we heard one of them singing, "Gay and happy still."

THE BAPTIST S. SCHOOL went to Hagerty's grove, east of town, where a table swing, &c., had been prepared for their enjoyment. We believe that this was the only place where the document which gave to this day a name was read. Mr. Harry Colclesser read the Declaration of Independence, the teachers and children sung some patriotic songs, and short and appropriate speeches were made by Rev. A. F Shanafelt, of Bell's Mills, and Rev. Dimmock, of Philadelphia. The grove resounded with the gleeful voice of childhood, until the evening air kissed their brows and bade them hasten home.

SONS OF TEMPERANCE.—This order celebrated the day by a pleasant festival, in the evening, at their hall. Ice cream, cakes, and smiles, we are told, went far to make the entertainment a joyous one.

ALTOONA SOLDIER'S AID SOCIETY.—A few noble ladies are still laboring in this good cause, we hope more will join them soon. The following statement has been handed us:

"June 28, 1864. Sent to the Sanitary Commission one box, containiug one quilt made and presented by the young ladies of Hamilton school, Logan township; thirteen pairs new drawers, one pair old ones; five new shirts and three old ones; thirty-three handkerchiefs; nine towels; three arm slings; two coats; two pairs pants; one hundred and fifty-seven yds. bandages; one hundred rolls old muslin; a lot of lint, and a package of newspapers."

We are requested to say that donations will be thankfully received by the members of the society, to be appropriated to the humane object for which they have organized. Mrs. Robert McCormick or Mrs. Daniel Price will receive any such donations of money, or articles of clothing or food that might add to the comfort of our brave boys, in the hospital or on the field.

A LOVE LETTER.—The following billetdoux was picked up the other day and handed to

A Love Letter.—The following billetdoux was picked up the other day and handed to us for publication. We give it a place in our columns for the benefit of Sally Ann, and all others who may be able to "see the point." Read it:

Forth of July, 1864.

Dere Sally Ann—
Upon this grate and glorius day
I set me down to Rite to you;
So never mind what others Say,
But just Believe your William tru.

O, Sally Ann, I luv you better than mi own mamy, and if you won't Marry me Ile never be happ enny more—so Dere Sally Ann just make up yure Mind and set the Day. I no I hav no home, but wele Rent a cottage and Ile work hard, and wele bi all our groceries and provisions at Fritchey's cheap store, and thus we can soon Save enuff to bi a House and Lot, and if we kontinu to bi at Fritchey's we wood soon be Rich, and you mite dress in silk and So Forth, and hav 3 new bonnits every yeie! No more at present, but remanes your own Swete WILLIAM.

Those Hogs.—Some weeks ago we had the assurance that all hogs running loose about town would be "arrested" and confined.

Many new pens were erected and quite an improvement made, but we notice this morning quite a number of porkers rooting along the sidewalks of some of our principal streets.

We hope the proper officers may get a sight of them, and "send them up" to the castle prepared for their reception.

Young Men's Christian Association.—On Friday night last, at the regular meeting of the Y. M. C. Association, the following officers were elected for the current term, viz.: President, A. H. Sembower; Vice President, J. W. Isenberg; Rec. Secretary, J. D. Hicks; Ass't Rec. Secretary, Chas. G. Welch; Financial Secretary, Richard DeCharmes; Treas., H. C. Bossinger.

Miss Shoemaker's Concerts.—We unintentionally neglected in our last issue to notice that both these concerts came off in such a manner as to elicit praise from those best able to judge as to their merits. We hope the thing may be repeated at some future time.

Runaway.—On the morning of the Fourth, a horse, attached to a milk-wagon, became frightened at the music made by the "fantastic band," and ran away, depositing the wagon and freight in a reversed position opposite Kheringer's hotel, on Virginia street.

Draft—On Monday the 11th inst., another draft was made for this county, to fill the deficiency growing out of exemptions in the last draft, which was only for the net number required. This time 100 per cent extra have been drafted to meet the exemptions. We have only been able to secure the list for Logan and Antes townships in time for publication:

Wonderful Discovery.—We have an article, from our friend Godfray Wolf, corner of Main and Caroline streets, bearing the above caption, which will appear next week. The object of the article is to make known to the citizens of Altoona and vicinity, that Wolf has discovered where the best and cheapest ready made clothing can be purchased in the eastern cities, and that he has consequently filled his shelves with goods from those same houses. And now to conclude this brief notice of this very wonderful production; we need only say to our readers, go to Wolf's and see if you cannot discover something to suit you, but don't carry anything away without his consent.

Almost a Pic-Nic at Wapsenonock.—We are informed that some of our fair young friends made arrangements a few days ago to make a trip to this romantic spot. The gentlemen were invited to meet the ladies at a certain place where the fair ones had the cakes and other necessary "fixins" ready. The hour arrived, but lo! the gentleman came not; and the ladies retired to one of the groves near by, where they enjoyed the best of company—their own. Shame on you, young men! Had we been young, the ladies should have gone to Wapsy.

More Troops.—The Governor has issued two separate calls, each for 12,000 men, to serve one hundred days unless sooner discharged. Service in this call will not exempt from the draft, but credit will be given for time of enlistment to any of those enlisting, should they afterwards be drafted. Capt. Thomas E. Campbell and Col. Jacob Szink are each trying to raise a Company for this service. Now is the time to serve your country. Young men, fall in.

Killed.—A man named Robert Welsh, was killed on the Railroad, a short distance below the station at this place, on Wednesday evening last. He was walking on the West track, and stepping out of the way of the Fast Line, was caught by a freight train and instantly killed. His body was frightfully mangled. He resided some where in the Alleghany Mountains, had a wife but no children, and was perhaps fifty years of age.—Tyrone Herald.

Sudden Death.—A young man of Gaysport, named Thomas Dasher, who spent the Fourth at this place, attending one of the pic-nics, and returned home in the evening in his usual good health, we are told, died suddenly on Tuesday morning of disease of the heart. Thus we go, from life to death, from the place of mirth to the silent chamber.

Hoyt's Hiawatha Hair Restorative.

Hoyt's Hiawatha Hair Restorative.

The standard staple preparation for the hair, warranted in all cases to restore faded and gray hair, and whiskers to their original color. It does not claim to make the hair grow in where it has once fallen out; nothing will do that whatever may be advertised to the contrary. But it will prevent it from falling out, make it soft and silky, cleanse it and the scalp from impurities and humors, and entirely overcome bad effects of previous use of preperations containing sulpher, sugar of lead, &c. It requires no soaping washing, and hours for its application, nor will it stain the skin, but is as easily applied and wiped from the skin as any hair dressing. It restores the natural shading of one hair with another, which gives it a lively appearance instead of the dull uniform black of dyes.

HOYT'S IMPERIAL COLORING CREAM.

Superior to any Hair Dressing in use. Oils and Colors the Hair at the same time. Changes light and red hair to a beautiful brown or black.
Sold everywhere.

Manhood: how Lost, how Restored.

Just published, a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical cure (without medicine) of Spermatorhœa, or seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also, Consumption, Epilepsy, and Fits, induced by self indulgence or sexual extravagance.
☞ Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents.
The celebrated author in this admirable essay clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife—pointing out a mode of cure, at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.
☞ This lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.
Sent under seal, in a plain envelope to any address, post paid, on receipt of six cents or two post stamps.—Address the publishers.

U. S. 10-40 Bonds.

These Bonds are issued under Act of Congress of March 3 1864, which provides that all Bonds issued under this Act shall be EXEMPT FROM TAXATION by or under any state or municipal authority. Subscriptions to these Bonds are received in United States notes or notes of National Banks. They are TO BE REDEEMED IN COIN, at the pleasure of the Government, at any period not less than ten nor more than forty years from their date, and until their redemption FIVE PER CENT. INTEREST WILL BE PAID IN COIN, on Bonds of not over one hundred dollars annually and on all other Bonds semi-annually. The interest is payable on the first days of March and September in each year.

Subscribers will receive either Registered or Coupon Bonds, as they may prefer. Registered Bonds are recorded on the books of the U. S. Treasurer, and can be transferred only on the owner's order. Coupon Bonds are payable to bearer, and are more convenient for commercial uses.

Subscribers to this loan will have the option of having their Bonds draw interest from March 1st, by paying the accrued interest in coin—(or in United States notes, or the notes of National Banks, adding fifty per cent. for premium,) or receive them drawing interest from the date of subscription and deposit. As these Bonds are EXEMPT FROM MUNICIPAL OR STATE TAXATION, their value is increased from one to three per cent. per annum, according to the rate of tax levies in various parts of the country.

At the present rate of premium on gold they pay
OVER EIGHT PER CENT INTEREST in currency, and are of equal convenience as a permanent or temporary investment.

It is believed that no securities offer so great inducements to lenders as the various descriptions of U. S. Bonds In all other forms of indebtedness, the faith or ability of private parties or stock companies or separate communities only is pledged for payment, while for the debts of the United States the whole property of the country is holden to secure the payment of both principal and interest in coin.

These Bonds may be subscribed for in sums from $50 up to any magnitude, on the same terms, and are thus made equally available to the smallest holder or the largest capitalist. They can be converted into money at any moment, and the holder will have the benefit of the interest.

It may be useful to state in this connection that the total Funded Debt of the United State, on which interest is payable in gold, on the 3d day of March, 1861, was $768,000,000. The interest on this debt for the coming fiscal year will be $35,937,126, while the customs revenue in gold for the current fiscal year, ending June 30th, 1864, has been so far at the rate of over $100,000,000 per annum.

It will be seen that even the present gold revenues of the Government are largely in excess of the wants of the Treasurer for the payment of gold interest, while the recent increase of the tariff will doubtless raise the annual receipts from customs on the same amount of importations to $150,000,000 per annum.

Instructions to the National Banks acting as loan agents were not issued from the United States Treasury until March 26, but in the first three weeks of April the subscriptions averaged more than TEN MILLIONS A WEEK

Subscriptions will be received by the
FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF ALTOONA.
First National Bank of Philadelphia, Pa.
Second National Bank of Philadelphia, Pa.
Third National Bank of Philadelphia, Pa.,
AND BY ALL NATIONAL BANKS
which are depositaries of Public money, and all
RESPECTABLE BANKS AND BANKERS

A JOINT RESOLUTION PROPOSING certain Amendments to the Constitution.
Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following amendments be proposed to the Constitution of the Commonwealth, in accordance with the provisions of the tenth article thereof:
There shall be an additional section of the third article of the Constitution, to be designated as section four, as follows:
"Section 4. Whenever any of the qualified electors of this Commonwealth shall be in any actual military service, under a requisition from the President of the United State, or by the authority of this Commonwealth, such electors may exercise the right of suffrage in all elections by the citizens, under such regulations as are, or shall be, prescribed by law, as fully as if they were present at their usual place.
"Section 2. There shall be two additional sections to the eleventh article of the Constitution, to be designated as section eight, and nine, as follows:
"Section 8. No bill shall be passed by the Legislature, containing more than one subject, which shall be clearly expressed in the title, except appropriation bills."
"Section 9. No bill shall be passed by the Legislature granting any powers, or privileges, in any case, where the authority to grant such powers, or privileges, has been or may hereafter be, conferred upon the courts of this Commonwealth."

Speaker of the House of Representatives.
JOHN P. PENNEY,
Speaker of the Senate
Office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, Harrisburg, April 25, 1864.
PENNSYLVANIA, ss:
SEAL
I do hereby certify that the foregoing is a full, true and correct copy of the original Joint Resolution of the General Assembly, entitled "A Joint Resolution proposing certain Amendments to the Constitution," as the same remains on file in this office.
In Testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the Secretary's office to be affixed, the day and year above written.
ELI SLIFER,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
The above Resolution having been agreed to by a majority of the members of each House, at two successive sessions of the General Assembly of this Commonwealth the proposed amendment will be submitted to the people of their adoption or rejection on THE FIRST TUESDAY OF AUGUST, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, in accordance with the provisions of the tenth article of the Constitution, and to constitute an Act prescribing the time and manner of submitting to the people, for their approval and rejection or rejection, the proposed amendments to the Constitution," a proved the twenty-third day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

SCROFULA AND RHEUMATISM.

CASE OF DANIEL A. BOYD.

PITTSBURGH, December 31, 1861.

DR. G. H. KEYSER: I take pleasure in making this voluntary statement in favor of a medicine made by you, called "Lindsey's Blood Searcher." I have suffered for five years from Scrofula, which broke out in my head and forehead, so as to disfigure me very much, and took off the hair when the disease made its appearance; it also broke out on my arm above and below the elbow, and eat into the skin and flesh so as to expose a fearful-looking sore. The disease on my head went so far that several small pieces of bone came out. I was very weak and low spirited, and had given up all hopes of ever getting well, as I had tried several skilful physicians, and they did me no good. In September last, 1861 I was induced to try "Lindsey's Improved Blood Searcher." I must confess I had no faith in patent medicines, but after I had used three bottles of Blood Searcher, the ulcers on my head and arm began to heal. I have now taken eight or ten bottles, and my head and arm are entirely well, except the scars remaining from the sores. I will also state that I had the Rheumatism very bad in my arms and legs. The Blood Searcher also cured the Rheumatism. I am now a well man, over forty years of age, and I feel as supple and young as I did when I was twenty, and increased in weight twenty pounds. I would also state that when I stooped to lift anything heavy the blood ran out of the sore.

Dr. Keyser had a photograph taken of me by Mr. Cargo, the artist, after I began to get well. It does not show my appearance as bad as it was before I commenced taking the medicine. You can see the photographs, one of which is now in my possession, also at Dr. Keyser's 140 Wood street. I would also state that I took the Blood Searcher which was made before Dr. Keyser commenced making it. Although it helped me some, I did not recover until I got the kind made by Dr. Keyser himself. One bottle of this did me more good than two of the old. I believe it is a great deal stronger and better. I have recommended the Blood Searcher to a great many of my friends for various diseases, and I believe it has helped the whole of them. DANIEL A. BOYD.

ADDITIONAL CERTIFICATE OF DANIEL A. BOYD

DR. KEYSER: It is twenty months since I gave you my certificate in respect to the cure of my head and arm by the Blood Searcher, prepared by you. I was told by several people who have no faith in patent medicines that my head would get sore again in less than six months, and there is no appearance of its getting sore again. It is as well now as the day I gave you my certificate. If you like to publish this you may do so.

DANIEL A. BOYD,
No. 4, Pine street, Pittsburgh, Pa.

PITTSBURGH, September 1st. 1863.

Mr. Boyd's likeness before and after he was cured can be seen at Roush's Drug Store.

ANOTHER GREAT CURE BY THE BLOOD SEARCHER.

DR. GEORGE H. KEYSER.—Dear Sir: Actuated by the sincerest feelings of gratitude, I take pleasure in adding the case of my son to the already many testimonials in favor of the "IMPROVED BLOOD SEARCHER," prepared by you, hoping that others afflicted as my son was, may thereby become induced to use the BLOOD SEARCHER, and be rescued from a miserable condition. My little boy of six years of age became afflicted with sore eyes. I took him to five of the most eminent Doctors of Pittsburgh; they pronounced it Scrofula, but they could not help him. I was induced to try the BLOOD SEARCHER. I got two bottles; the first bottle did not notice any benefit from the second is not quite finished, and his eyes seem to be quite well, although I intend to use another bottle or two to make sure of it.

Yours truly, SARAH CLARK, O'Hara street.

SORE EYES.

DR. GEO. H. KEYSER: My sister had putrid sore eyes, which affected her sight to a most total blindness. I was recommended to try your BLOOD SEARCHER. I bought one bottle, which she took, and she is entirely well. I would recommend it to others similarly afflicted, as I think there is not a better medicine to be found. Wishing you a heavy success, I remain,

Yours truly, MARY T. COUP.
By her brother, HENRY D. COUP.

PALSY CURED.

DR. GEO. H. KEYSER: I have been afflicted with paralysis of the limbs for four months, and after doctoring a long time to no purpose, Mr. Walker, of this place, got me to get one bottle of your BLOOD SEARCHER. I did so and am now entirely well for which I am very thankful to you. HARRISON BRYNER, Connellsville, Pa.

PAIN IN THE SIDE.

I have been afflicted with a pain in the side for a long time, and one bottle of Improved Blood Searcher cured me sound and well. I had tried everything that I could think of, and had consulted the best doctors in the county and received no benefit until I used one bottle of the Blood Searcher, which cured me sound and well.

JAMES SLIUSMAN,
New Haven, Fayette county.

SKIN DISEASE "BREAKING OUT."

DR. GEORGE H. KEYSER: I have had a breaking out on the skin for six months, and after using everything I could hear of, Mr. Walker advised me to use one bottle of your Blood Searcher. I did so, and did great relief, so much so, that I think I am entirely well, and recommend it to others for the same disease. P. I. V. BRADY, Connellsville, March 2d, 1863.

SCROFULA.

DR. GEORGE H. KEYSER: My little girl was taken with Scrofula, the same way that her brother was taken, and I went to Mr. Walker and got two bottles of Blood Searcher, and she is now well. Her brother sent his certificate last fall, and I want you to have her's. BELINDA SHAW.
Connellsville, March, 1863.

PILES OF

TWENTY YEARS STANDING

CURED.

Below will be found a certificate from one of the most respectable citizens of Wilkins township in regard to Dr. Keyser's Lindsey's Blood Searcher. The Doctor's certificates are within reach, and no one need be deceived in regard to his preparations.

DR. GEO. H. KEYSER:—I became afflicted with the Piles about twenty years ago, and every year they were growing worse, so as to trouble me very much, so much so at times as to unfit me for work. Sometimes I was so bad that I could not do anything on account of them, they came out on me as large as a hickory nut. I had tried a great deal of medicine for them. I used to buy and take whatever I could hear of or read of in circulars and pamphlets that fell in my way, but I could not get cured, sometimes they would do me some good for a little while, but afterwards they would return again as bad as ever. I also applied to two Doctors who visited me at my house and gave me some medicine but it would not do, I could not get well.—Over a year ago I got an advertisement of your Lindsey's Blood Searcher, made by yourself—when you sold it to me you told me one bottle would not cure me, and that my whole system would have to be renewed by the medicine before I get well. I bought one bottle and took it home with me and used it according to your directions. I then called to see you again, when you said I could not expect much benefit from one bottle. I bought it on, one bottle at a time, until I had used five bottles. After this quantity had been used, I was entirely well of the Piles, which had tortured me for twenty years. In other respects my health is improved, and I am as well as could be expected for one of my age, being sixty years past. I have been well now for six months, and there is no appearance of a return of the disease. I can do any kind of farming work now without the Piles coming down and hurting me. I can pitch hay, chop wood, lift, or do any kind of work which before used to hurt me. When I found out your Blood-Searcher I kept on taking it until I got entirely well. I consider it my duty to make my case known to the country for the benefit of others who may be suffering as I was, and do not know the value of your medicine.—You may publish this if you like—I live in Wilkins Township, and will be pleased to satisfy any one of the truth of this certificate if they wish to call on me.

ELLIOTT DAVIS.

December 24th, 1863.

DR. WISHART'S

PINE TREE

TAR CORDIAL

IS THE VITAL PRINCIPLE OF THE PINE TREE,

Obtained by a peculiar process in the distillation of the tar, by which its highest medical properties are retained.

Have you a Cough? Have you a Sore Throat? Have you any of the premonitory symptoms of that most fatal disease, Consumption?

Those who should be warned by these symptoms generally think lightly of them until it is too late. From this fact, perhaps more than any other, arises the sad prevalence and fatality of disease which sweeps to the grave at least "one-sixth" of death's victims.

Consumption has destroyed more of the human family than any other disease, and the best physicians for many years have despaired of a cure, or a remedy that would heal the lungs, but for more than two hundred years the whole medical world has been impressed that there was a mysterious power and efficiency in the Pine Tree Tar to heal the lungs; therefore they have recommended the use of Tar Water, which in many cases had a good effect; but how to combine the medical properties so as to heal the lungs, has ever been a mystery until it was discovered by Dr. L. Q. C. WISHART, of Philadelphia, Pa., the proprietor of "Wishart's Pine Tree Tar Cordial."

Many, not only of the people, but physicians of every school and practice, are daily asking me, "What is the principal or cause of your success in the treatment of Pulmonary Consumption?" My answer is this:

The invigoration of the digestive organs, the strengthening of the debilitated system, the purification and enrichment of that expel from the system the corruption which scrofula breeds. While this is effected by the powerful alternative (changing from disease to health) properties of the Tar Cordial, its healing and renovateng principle is also acting upon the irritated surfaces of the lungs and throat, penetrating to each diseased part relieving pain, subduing inflamation, and restoring a healthful tendency. Let this two-fold power, the healing and the strengthening, continue to act in conjunction with Nature's constant recuparative tendency, and the patient is saved, if he has not too long delayed a resort to the means of cure.

I ask all to read the following certificates. They are from men and women of unquestionable worth and reputation.

DR. WISHART—Dear Sir:—I had a very dreaful cough and sore throat for one year, and my whole system was fast giving way, and I was prostrated on my bed with but little hope of recovering. My disease baffled the power of all medicines, and in a short time I must have gone to my grave, but thank God, my daughter-in-law would not rest until she went to your store, No. 10, N. Second street, and related my case to you, purchased one bottle of your Pine Tree Tar Cordial and I commenced to use it, and in one week I was much better, and after using three bottles I am perfectly well, and a wonder to all my friends, for they all pronounced me past cure. Publish my case if you think proper.

REBECCA HAMILTON,
No. 1321 Wylie street, Philadelphia.

Dr. Wishart's Pine Tree Tar Cordial is an infallible cure for Bronchitis, Bleeding of the Lungs, Sore Throat and Breast, Inflamation of the Lungs.

MR. WARD says:

DR. WISHART—Sir:—I had Bronchitis, Inflammation of the Lungs, Shortness of Breath, and Palpitation of the Heart in their worst forms; I have been treated by several of the most eminent physicians in Philadelphia, but they could not stop the rapid course of my disease, and I disparied of ever being restored to health. I was truly on the verge of the grave. Your Pine Tree Tar Cordial was highly recommended to me by a friend; I tried it, and am thankful to say that, after using four large bottles and one small bottle, I was restored to perfect health. You can give reference to my house No. 968 N. Second street, or at my office of Receiver of Taxes, form 9 A. M. to 2 P. M., corner of Chestnut and Sixth streets. JOHN WARD.

Read the following from Utica;

DR. WISHART—Dear Sir:—I take pleasure in informing you through this source that your Pine Tree Tar Cordial, which was recommended for my daughter by Dr. J. H. Hall, of this city, has cured her of a cough of more than five months standing. I had thought her beyond cure, and had employed the best medical Aid without any benefit. I can cheerfully recommend for those similarly afflicted as I know of many other cases besides that of my daughter that it has entirely cured of long standing coughs. Yours respectfully, JOHN V. PARKER, Daguerrean Artist.
126 Genesee street, Utica, N. Y.

* * * * *:—I have used Dr. Wishart's Pine Tree Tar Cordial in my family, and can cordially recommend it as a valuable and safe medicine for colds, coughs and to those predisposed to consumption.

Dr. G. A. FOSTER 162 Genesee street.
Utica, NEW YORK.

The above are a few among the thousands which this great remedy has saved from an untimely grave.

We have thousands of letters from physicians and druggists who have prescribed and sold the Tar Cordial saying that they have never used or sold a medicine which gave such universal satisfaction.

The Tar Cordial, when taken in connection with Dr. Wishart's Dyspepsia Pills, is an infallible cure for dyspepsia.

The PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL will cure Coughs, Sore Throat and Breast, Bronchitis, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Diptheria, and is also an excellent remedy for diseases of the kidneys and female complaints.

The genuine has the name of the proprietor and a pine tree blown in the bottle. All others are spurious imitations.

CHEROKEE REMEDY

—AND—

CHEROKEE INJECTION

Compounded from Barks, Roots & Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic cures all diseases of the various organs, such as Incontinence of the Urine, Inflamation of the Bladder, Inflammation of the Kidneys, Stone in the Bladder, Stricture, Gravel, Gleet, Gonorrhœa, and is especially recommended in those cases of Fluor Albus (or Whites in females) where all the old nauseous medicines have failed.

It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose only being from one to two teaspoonfuls three times per day, and cleansing the blood causing it to flow in all of its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which have induced disease.

CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an ally or assistant to the Cherokee Remedy, and should be used in conjunction with that medicine in all cases of Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Fluor Albus or Whites. Its effect are healing soothing and demulcent; removing all scalding, heat, chordee and pain, instead of the burning and almost unendurible pain that is experienced with nearly all the cheap quack Injections.

By use of the Cherokee Remedy and Cherokee Injection —the two medicines at the same time—all improper discharges are removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strength.

For full particulars get our pamphlet from any drug store in the country, or write to us and we will mail free to any address, a full treatise.

THE GREAT

INDIAN MEDICINE

COMPOUNDED FROM

ROOTS, BARKS AND LEAVES.

CHEROKEE CURE!

An unfailing cure for Spermatorrhea, Seminal Weakness Nocturnal Emissions, and all deceases caused by self-pollution; such as, Loss of Memory, Universal Lassitude, Pains in the Back, Dimness of Vision, Premature Old Age, Weak Nerves, Difficulty in Breathing, Trembling, Wakefulness, Eruptions on the Face, Pale Countenance, Insanity, Consumption, and all the Direful Complaints caused by departing from the path of nature.

This medicine is a simple vegetable extract, and one on which all can rely, as it has been used in our practice for many years, and with thousand treated, it has not failed in a single instance. Its curative powers have been sufficient to gain victory over the most stubborn cases.

To those who have trifled with their constitution until they think themselves beyond the reach of medical aid, we would say, Despair not! the CHEROKEE CURE will restore you to health and vigor, and after all quack doctors have failed!

For full particulars, get a Circular from any Drug Store in the country, or write the Proprietors, who will mail free to any one desiring the same, a full treatise in pamphlet form

Prices $2 per bottle, or three bottles for $5, and forwarded by Express to all parts of the world.

Sold by all respectable druggists everywhere.
